

Download JQuery file

<http://jquery.com/download/>

FINAL PROJECT STRUCTURE

In a project, root folder contains all the files regarding the project including images, css, js, html files. It should always be in a structured manner.

Make different folders inside the root folder for specific files. CSS folder should contain all the CSS files. JS folder should have all the js files. Images folder should have all the images of the project. This is the general practice to manage all the files of the project.